Our speaker in March was Joyce Knapton who told us of her traumatic experience when she was "Hijacked on a Plane" whilst travelling from Bahrain to London in 1970. The hostages were taken to Amman where the aircraft was blown up, but the passengers were eventually released unharmed. Our next meeting is on the 17th April when "BonMarche" will be presenting a fashion show. We meet at Rhodes Minnis Village Hall at 7.30pm and everyone is welcome. For further information contact Diana Bennet on 862134

Etchinghill WI

President, Barbara Syrett welcomed members to last month's meeting and presented birthday posies to Jacqui Storey, Stella Samuels and Daphne Andrews. The speaker, Lara Murphy from the Canterbury Dog's Trust which is based at Chestfield, brought along her dog, Smudge, who was a rescue dog and she gave us a most interesting talk regarding their welfare and history. Members were amazed how much work the Dog's Trust do, for not only re-homing but also for the general public in need. A delicious tea followed, the hostesses being Gill Le Cras, June Price and Jacqui Storey. The competition for a dog ornament was won by Evelyn Holt, second was Gladys Harris and third Sylvia Clark. Next meeting is on Tuesday, April 16 at 2.30pm in the village hall when Christine Dolby will speak on "Healthy Lifestyle and Relaxation Techniques". New members and visitors are welcome, contact Barbara Syrett on 01303 265229 or Rita Warner on 01303 863503 for more information.

How to save £100 and keep motoring

Motoring to Canterbury recently, we were somewhat surprised and not a little inconvenienced, when our car lost power and we were stranded at the side of the road outside Kingston. We were subsequently recovered and taken to the dealer's garage in Folkestone. There we were told that the cold weather had had a detrimental effect on our fuel (diesel) and the fuel line filter had been waxed up. This needed the filter to be replaced and an additive poured into the tank to stop it occurring again.

In the discussions that followed it became obvious that whilst little is known about what specific weather/temperature conditions have to exist and which suppliers add or do not add additive to their diesel we could have avoided the 90% of the bill if we had put the additive into our fuel tank as soon as the weather approached freezing.

Next year, on the advice of our dealer, we will buy the additive in November and start using it as soon as the really cold weather arrives. If you have suffered similar problems our dealer's advice may well save you similar problems. John Carr

Letters to Editor

Thank you so much, Niki and Honor, and helpers, for organising such a relaxing pamper evening for us ladies on Friday 1st March. A lot of thought and effort had been put into creating an evening where we felt so cared for. The hall had been transformed, with comfortable armchairs and subtle lighting. One could sample and view a selection of handmade chocolates, jewellery, handbags, cupcakes and organic cosmetics, not to mention watching with fascination the art of eyebrow threading! Treatments ranged from facials to reflexology and aromatherapy (there was even spray tanning!) and were all very reasonably priced. The foot massage and reflexology was incredibly relaxing and I for one would book this again! These ladies are to be commended for giving up their Friday evening after a busy day's treatment! Thank you once again!

Lyminge Village Hall

Lyminge Village Hall was built in 1981 from public contributions and generous grants from the Sports Council, Lyminge Parish Council, the Tory Foundation and Shepway District Council. The Hall is well located well away from the main built up area of the village nestling in a very rural location, overlooking our ancient church of St Mary and St Ethelburga. A two storey extension was completed in 2007 creating much needed extra storage space.

The Hall is the home to the village Pre-School, who have made great use of all the facilities since it was formed. Evening clubs include Judo, Short Mat Bowls and art classes in the Harry Storey Room. Other regular users are Lyminge Dramatic Society, Cantores Dominicae and the very popular Railway Swing Band. The very reasonable letting fees do not, however, fully cover the running cost of keeping the Hall in good condition. As a result we hold regular fundraising events; Lyminge Day, on the second Saturday in May, Firework Night on the 5th November, popular quiz nights four times a year and the monthly 100 Club draw.

We applied for Hallmark accreditation in 2010, an award that demonstrates we are managing the Hall well and meet strict safety and health guidelines. After detailed inspections we were awarded Hallmark Level 1 in 2011 and Hallmark Level 2 in 2012. We are one of just 17 halls in Kent to achieve this award. The Hall was also entered into the new Village Hall of the Year Competition in 2011 and 2012, achieving Commended on both occasions.

The Village Hall has been run by the same enthusiastic team of volunteers for many years; naturally the team can't carry on indefinitely so we seek new members in advance of upcoming retirements. If you feel you can bring fresh ideas and energy to the Hall Committee, so our excellent work can continue, please let us know. For more information call the Chairman, David Hunt Cooke on 862928, email davehc@uwclub.net or come to the AGM on Thursday 16th May at 7.30pm.

Keep green fingers safe from fire

Take care with bonfires:

- A bonfire should not contain any potentially hazardous materials which may explode or give off toxic fumes, such as; aerosols, batteries, bottles, foam-filled furniture or tins of paint.
- A bonfire should be kept to a manageable size and evenly built so that it collapses inwards as it burns.
- Always check the bonfire's construction is still sound prior to lighting it, that there are no children or animals inside, and that hazardous items such as aerosols and fireworks have not been thrown onto it.
- The bonfire should not be lit by children or left unattended and nothing should be cooked on it.

For further advice on how to keep you, your family or a neighbour safe from fire call Kent Fire and Rescue Service for free on 0800 923 7000 or go to www.3breaths.info for further information.

Lyminge Hand Bells

We have taken a short break from ringing but have now polished the bells and are now rehearsing again. There have been a couple of retirements within the Team so we can now invite new players. You do not need to read music – just count! If you are interested please let us know.

Are you planning a local celebration but can't think what to do to make it extra special? Would hearing well known tunes played on hand bells fit the bill? We would be delighted to welcome you to come along to a rehearsal to hear us play and, if you wish, select your choice of music. We just need a large table for the bells and music, room for up to 12 players and a donation of at least £40 for our charity, the Nepali Children's Trust. A small contribution to travelling costs is appreciated for bookings more than 5 miles from Lyminge. Weekends and evenings only please and we do need plenty of advance notice. Want more info or make a booking? Just call Ro Edmond on 863201 or email welldorm@aol.com

Lyminge Heritage Questions and Answers

In Saxon times Lyminge was the centre of a royal estate owned by the King of Kent as well as being the ecclesiastical centre of the region. It has been suggested that the mercantile centre of the region was Lympe. The fact that both centres of this region were not directly involved in the Cinque Port Confederation perhaps suggests how much both settlements had declined by that time.

The Confederation of Cinque Ports was initially an informal grouping of five ports that provided ships and crews to the King, Edward the Confessor, for limited time each year in return for monetary and trading privileges. This was in about 1050 and was one of the first naval defences that England had. The five (Cinque in Norman French) were Sandwich, Dover, Hythe, New Romney and Hastings. The naval duties owed by the ports are mentioned in the Domesday Book and during Norman times the Cinque Port Confederation became more formalised with Royal Charters being issued to each port and eventually to all the ports together. These Royal Charters define the duties and privileges of the Cinque Ports. The duties were to maintain a number of ships for a number of days annual service to the crown. The privileges included exemption from taxes, the rights to judge and punish certain crimes, trading monopolies and extra parliamentary representation.

Two "Antient (sic) Towns" supported the five ports in their duties and benefits; namely Rye and Winchelsea. The head ports also shared the duties (and the benefits) with other settlements where they often owned land. These were known as "Corporate Limbs" of the head ports. Other settlements provided lesser duties and were known as "Non Corporate Limbs" So the Limbs of Hastings included Grange (now in Gillingham) and Bekesbourne. Sandwich's Limbs included Deal, Stonar, Ramsgate, Sarre, Fordwich, Reculver and Brightlingsea (in Essex). Dover's Limbs comprised Folkestone, Ringwould, St Peter's (Broadstairs), St John's (Margate), Woodchurch, Kingsdown and Faversham. The limb of Hythe was West Hythe. Finally, Tenterden was a Limb of Rye. The Cinque Ports required their own meeting place and this was founded on 'neutral ground' at Shepway Cross (at the top of Lympe Hill).

Coastal change was probably the main reason for the decline of the Cinque Ports. By the 16th century all the head ports had silted up except for Hastings, which had been washed away. Only Dover was important enough to be maintained. Other ports such as Southampton and Bristol took trade, as they were able to manage the larger ships that were being built by then. The privileges took longer to decline. For example, the extra parliamentary representation of the head ports was maintained until the reform acts of the 19th and 20th centuries.

If you have any information about this or any other local heritage subject, please contact me. I am finding it increasingly hard to find new subject matter so please let me know what you would like in this section of the newsletter.

Lyminge Archaeological Project 2013

Reading University are returning to Lyminge this summer to continue their exciting excavation work on Tayne Field. Last year's dig revealed a significant timber frame hall dating from pre-Christian times with excavation work and finds cleaning involving many volunteers from the village. This year the dig will start on Monday the 22nd July and continue until Sunday the 1st September. Once again local people are being invited to get involved. Those who have no excavation experience will be invited to attend an induction session in the Tayne Centre. These will be held on Saturday and Wednesday mornings for the first four weeks of the dig. If you fancy spending time this summer helping to discover more of Lyminge's early history go to their website where full details of how to take part can be found. www.lymingearchaeology.org/taking-part/

Christmas Day

Lunch Club

DO YOU BUY ANY GOODS/SHOPPING USING THE INTERNET?

The Christmas Day Lunch Club has just signed up to easyfundraising.org.uk which helps people like us raise money when our supporters shop online. It works like a loyalty shopping site but instead of earning points when you shop, you raise a donation for us instead. You can shop with over 2000 well known stores and each will donate up to 15% of what you spend. For example John Lewis will donate 1%, Amazon 1.5%, The Body Shop 6% and some insurance retailers will even donate up to £30 simply for taking out a policy with them. All you have to do is join easyfundraising.org.uk and select the Christmas Day Lunch Club as your cause and then follow the links to the online retailers and then shop as normal.

The great thing is it won't cost you any more, plus they have lots of voucher codes and special discounts, so you can save money whilst helping us.

The Children's Society

From your Police Community Support Officer - SHED BREAK Ins

Unfortunately I'm having to ask you all again to be vigilant again as there has been a slight increase in shed break ins. As you know we can help with advice and were available with shed alarms should anyone who has been a victim need one. There isn't a lot to go on at this time regarding suspects, so anything you may feel needs reporting, please ring 101 (non-emergency number).
